

The Long Haul Bombers are again set to compete in home run derbies across the country to be named the 2010 Home Run Champion.

This season includes veterans of the Stadium Power Tour and some new faces. Two notable veterans are Miken's Denny Crine and Easton's Brett Helmer as they have brought home almost all of the trophies since the first champion was crowned in 2003. The most significant new faces are not players but teams as Team Bass and Team DeMarini join the Tour this season.

This year's teams competing in the Stadium Power Tour include (listed alphabetically):

Team Bass

Jeff Hall and Todd Pease

Team DeMarini

Geno Buck and Chris Larsen

Team Easton

Brett Helmer and Brian Wegman

Team Miken

Denny Crine and Jeremy Isenhower

Team TPS

JD Genter and Brett McCollum

Team Worth

Greg Connell and BJ Fulk

As in season's past, the Long Haul Bombers will be competing in the home run derbies right before MLB baseball games. Plus, all of the action will be followed on the TV show Softball 360 and can be watched on Softball360.com.

The appearances for the Long Haul Bombers for 2010 are listed below. As in the past, the Bombers will perform prior to the game. Check Softball360.com for additional events and appearances.

Florida Marlins, May 15th

Tampa Bay Rays, May 16th

Colorado Rockies, May 29th

San Diego Padres, June 17th

Seattle Mariners, June 25th

Cincinnati Reds, July 30th

Toronto Blue Jays, August 1st

Atlanta Braves, August 13th

Washington Nationals, August 29th